Kramer – Town Justice Van Buskirk made her ruling on July 28th: the Court finds in favor of the Town of Ledyard and requires that the dock and boat hoist structure be altered to conform to the specifications of the Town of Ledyard Zoning Law.

Kramer's Foil request – any agreements filed with the Town of Ledyard regarding set back issues– Supervisor Jordan read town lawyer Chirco's letter concerning Judge Lind's referring this matter to mediation.

HIGHWAY

- Should hear about new pickup soon.
- Will oil and chip Britt Rd Wednesday
- Replacing pipes on Dublin Hill Rd

HISTORIAN

- Gave a formal report on 4th of July reading the Declaration of Independence with 250 people attending.
- Gave an interview to a reporter from Auburn Citizen and provided pictures.
- Continuing to research Revolutionary War veterans
- The combined ceremony for the planting of the 5' Eastern White pine and burying of the time capsule may be held in October. Will have wooden nickels to give out to everyone attending.

Supervisor Jordan read Mike Britt's message: won't attend tonight's meeting but did look at Benjamin Rd.

Supervisor Jordan attended NYSEG's Community Leaders Meeting in Auburn NY on July 29, 2026. The county is running out of electricity. A local dairy just put a big circular parlor in and doesn't know how they're going to power it – add generator? NYSEG will be doing a lot of electrical work in southern part of Cayuga County. Only one distribution line runs from Milliken Station to Auburn.
